Students in Ms. Carolyn Anderson's Marketing class had so much fun this week learning about banking and credit. On Thursday, December 13th, Keirsten Boyd and Katie Sonnycalf, representatives from Wells Fargo, Dual Lane Branch, presented a wealth of information on keeping good records of transactions, procedures for opening a minor savings account, legal issues regarding credit, and the importance of saving at a young age. Last week the class completed a chapter on banking and credit, so the Wells Fargo presentation was a wonderful follow-up for the students. Ms. Angela Mitchell, a Wells Fargo employee and parent of a Zucker Middle School 7th grader, assisted Ms. Anderson in setting up the classroom presentation.
