Thirty 6th, 7th and 8th grade students from Jerry Zucker Middle School were inducted into the National Junior Beta Club on Monday, April 8th. These students included Kierra Ancrum, Briashmel Bell, Tilayah Bennett, Johnyier Bragg, Lyndon Bryant, Guadalupe Chavez-Gutierrez, Ashlyn Conway, Caitlin Cornell, Michel Dukes, Sheniah Everson, Ayleen Galvan, Taniah German, Kiajaneese Gilllyard, Karisma Hamilton, Brianna Jackson, Jemar Jones, Nicholas Lingford, Cyncier McCray, Monae Mitchell, Ebonie Mustipher, Jean Prado, Kayla Richardson, Jasmine Sanders, Breonna Simmons-Lingard, Jaelyn Thieman, Mollie Tomkins, Jayden Walker, Kamron Washington, Finean Williams, and Ty'Celia Young. These students were invited to join Beta Club because they each have a 90 or above in all core academic classes, excellent conduct, a desire for excellence, and a willingness to improve the school and community. Beta Club was founded in 1934 as an organization to promote and recognize achievement, character, leadership and service among students in grades 5-12. The Zucker Middle School Beta Club is sponsored by Zucker guidance counselors Mrs. Naquita Page-Dawson and Mrs. Cheryl Tolley.
