NORTH CHARLESTON—

Students in Ms. Alyssa Grogan's 8th grade homeroom at Jerry Zucker Middle School, cheered on by their classmates and teachers, played a game of floor hockey against the Stingrays Hockey Team on Tuesday, March 26th. The Stingrays mascot Cool Ray also made an appearance at the game. Ms. Grogan's homeroom earned the privilege of taking on the Stingrays by reading the most pages during the Stingrays Stick to Reading Challenge, a six-week program in which all 8th graders participated. The game, which lasted about an hour, ended with the 8th graders defeating the Stingrays 10-9.
