North Charleston— Fifteen 7th grade students at Jerry Zucker Middle School have qualified for the Duke TIP 7th Grade Talent Search. These outstanding students scored either at or above the 95th percentile on the PASS test. They have earned the opportunity to take either the SAT or ACT college entrance exams and perhaps qualify for many outstanding programs offered by Duke University.

More information about Duke TIP is available at tip.duke.edu/7gts.

The Jerry Zucker Middle school students who have been invited to participate in Duke TIP include Joanna Vargas, Jocelyn Soriano Melendez, Joel Orellana-Torres, Alyssa Kapinos, Leslie Coronado Hernandez, Aydan Kapinos Eric Churchill, Amaris Riley, Mark Cargill, Jaden Swinehart, David Cano, Justin Smith, Zenaida Ingram, Dylan Griffith, and Cameron Steinbacher.

For more information regarding this event, please contact Principal Jacob Perlmutter or librarian Miranda Cary at (843) 767-8383.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and several specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities led by associate superintendents. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
