

For Immediate Release

March 4, 2013

Contact:

Miranda Cary, Librarian or
Jacob Perlmutter, Principal

Extraordinary Young Artists Recognized

Artwork by Zucker Middle School students on display at Charleston County Public Library

Dr. Nancy J. McGinley
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Louis Martin
Associate Superintendent

Jerry Zucker Middle School

Mr. Jacob Perlmutter
Principal

NORTH CHARLESTON—

Eleven students from Jerry Zucker Middle School have had their artwork selected for the 2013 Extraordinary Arts Exhibition. Their artwork will be on display at the Charleston County Public Library from March 8-23. The Extraordinary Arts Exhibition, which is sponsored by the Charleston Artist Guild, is an annual community program for special needs students in the lowcountry. All students who participate in the program receive a gift bag filled with art supplies. Each entrant in the exhibition will be judged, and the winning artists will be presented with cash prizes. The Jerry Zucker Middle School students who are participating in the exhibit include Dashaun King, Malik Murphy and Tyler Watkins (6th grade); Aunestie Blair, James Peyton Bradford and Zabrina Howard (7th grade); and Kiamarah Algarin-Murray, Alize Alston, Skyler Davis, Torion Robinson and Quinterra Sheppard (8th grade). All these students are under the tutelage of Jerry Zucker Middle School art teacher Mrs. Kathryn Seitz.

For more information regarding this event, please contact Principal Jacob Perlmutter or librarian Miranda Cary at (843) 767-8383.