NORTH CHARLESTON—

Ernest Henderson. Charles Bolden, Jr. Caroline Etheridge Hembel. Horace Ellis "Sally" Crouch. What do these people have in common? They are all famous aviators from South Carolina, and they are all depicted on a mural at Jerry Zucker Middle School which shows aviation scenes from South Carolina's history. Jerry Zucker Middle School was fortunate to be selected by the South Carolina Aviation Association (SCAA) for their community service project which connects students with aviation through art. The mural was created during the SCAA's annual conference which was held in Charleston from February 12-14, 2014. Local artist Lynda English was at Zucker Middle School for two days sketching the mural. On Wednesday, February 12, volunteers from the SCAA painted the mural.
