NORTH CHARLESTON—

On Friday, May 18th 6th graders and teachers from Jerry Zucker Middle School cleaned up a one-mile section of Dorchester Road beginning at the school and ending at Collins Park. The group filled up more than 20 trash bags, mostly with items such as soda cans, bottles and food wrappers, but they also came across discarded car parts, including a tire and fender, a worn baseball glove, and even a laptop computer. This community service project was organized by 6th grade Social Studies teacher Mr. Benjamin Yelm as part of the G.R.E.A.T. (Gang Resistance Education and Training) program with the North Charleston Police Department.
